/Carlos MUNIZ

Probably identical with Carlos MUNIZ Varela, a 26-year-old Cuban exile who lived in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He was the Director of Viajes Varadero, a travel agency started in San Juan in Dec 1978. By his own admission, MUNIZ opened Viajes Varadero at the request of the Cuban Government and with the authorization to operate an exclusive monopoly in Puerto Rico to arrange travel of Cuban exiles to Cuba. Because of this relations with the Cuban Government, MUNIZ often traveled to Cuba and was in frequent contact with various Cuban officials.

On 18 April 1979 MUNIZ was fatally wounded after he received a 45 caliber bullet wound in the forehead. Although MUNIZ' assassins are not known, it is believed he was killed by right wing Cuban exile terrorists.
